REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the claims in this application have been allowed because the prior art, alone or in combination, does not disclose an aquarium container defined by one or more substantially vertical walls and a base portion, the container having an interior portion adapted to receive and contain a liquid, and a recess located on at least one of the one or more substantially vertical walls, wherein the recess extends into the interior portion of the container and includes a translucent or transparent surface adapted to transmit light to the interior portion of the container; nor does the prior art disclose an aquarium container defined by one or more walls and a base portion, the container having an interior portion adapted to receive and contain a liquid, and a support member formed with at least one of the one or more walls, wherein the support member extends into the interior portion of the container and is adapted to assist in securing decorations or live rock; wherein "formed with" is understood from the specification to mean integral with (specification, p. 4).

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
